A two-day conference
at East Malling Research, Kent
on 16-17 April 2013
FIRST ANNOUNCEMENT
AND CALL FOR PAPERS

Fruits and Roots: A Celebration and Forward Look

on 16-17 April 2013

at East Malling Research, Kent

FIRST ANNOUNCEMENT AND CALL FOR PAPERS (BASIS Points will be applied for)

The conference is part of a series of activities to mark the centenary of East Malling Research. It will be the scientific centrepiece and explore current and future research leading to improved fruits for the future. Topics to be covered will include:

- East Malling's unique contribution to fruit research 1913-2013
- Rootstock scion interactions
- Pests and pathogens and integrated control systems
- Fresh fruit quality through the supply chain
- Efficient resource use in the food chain
- Genetics and breeding of fruits
- New production systems

Invited speakers so far include:

Dr Ralph Scorza, Research Horticulturalist and Lead Scientist
(USDA-ARS Appalachian Fruit Research Station, Kearneysville, WV, USA)

Dr Mark Mazzola, Professor of Plant Pathology
(Washington State University, Wenatchee, WA, USA)

Dr Gennaro Fazio, Plant Breeder and Research Geneticist
(USDA-ARS Plant Genetic Resources Unit, Geneva, NY, USA)

Dr Stuart Tustin, Science Group Leader, Crop & Fruit Production Systems
(Plant & Food Research, New Zealand)

Presentations and posters from this Conference will be produced together in a volume of the Aspects of Applied Biology series (6-8 pages per paper). Copies will be available to delegates at the Conference. Abstracts of papers can be submitted by mailing or faxing the attached sheet to the AAB Office (russell@aab.org.uk), or online via our web site at <http://www.aab.org.uk>. Click on CONFERENCES and then ABSTRACTS in the menu bar, then the title of Conference. Once you have registered as a user you can upload your details. Please indicate if your offer is for a poster or a platform presentation. Please ensure your POP UP BLOCKER is off, or the abstract may not load properly.

DEADLINE FOR CALL FOR PAPERS IS 31 OCTOBER 2012
